

FSU ALLIES4ART

A community support group for students and faculty of
FSU Art and Art Education

Invites you to

KILLER ART

*An Evening to Celebrate Art, Artists &
The Role of the Art Therapist*

THURSDAY, JANUARY 30TH 2014
6:00 PM TO 8:30 PM

Hor d'Oeuvres, Wine, Beer and Dessert will be served

FSU Museum of Fine Arts, 530 West Call Street
Parking is available immediately to the east of the Museum in the Parking Garage

RSVP

to Jessica Comas at (850) 645-0701 or jcomas@fsu.edu
$50 per person suggested donation, Payable to FSU Foundation

FLORIDA STATE UNIVERSITY
COLLEGE OF VISUAL ARTS, THEATRE & DANCE

The Annual Faculty Art Exhibition

30 + Artists

Diverse in vision, media and execution, the works exhibited in the Annual Faculty Exhibition demonstrate visual investigations that form the studio practices of the Florida State University's Department of Art Faculty. More than 30 artists will exhibit works in many different media confront traditional notions of art, push boundaries and expectations, and make contemporary points with humor and passion.

Confessions of a Serial Art Therapist

A Talk by David Gussak, PhD, Professor

Author of "Art on Trial: Art Therapy in Capital Murder Cases"

A man murdered one of his children and attempted to kill the other. The prosecution sought the death penalty. The defense exhausted all typical strategies to demonstrate mental illness and they believed the defendant's art held the answers.

