HOW TO APPLY FOR A WORK-STUDY SCHOLARSHIP OR STUDIO ASSISTANTSHIP

1. Complete application form, indicating partial or full work-study (minimum age 18).
2. Include (in U.S. dollars) the nonrefundable $50 processing fee (do not send $500 deposit).
3. Include in one packet a letter as outlined in work-study description, a résumé, and two letters of reference. If you are applying for the Almon, Wright, Texas Star, and glass studio scholarships or a studio assistantship, include five printed photographs of your work (maximum size: 8½ x 11 inches) of your work. Incomplete applications will not be accepted. Scholarship applications are by mail only.
4. Applications must be received by August 1, 2014 for fall or November 28, 2014 for spring. Please note that, because of our rural location, overnight parcel services may take two or three days to deliver to Penland.
5. Balance due on notification of your acceptance.

There are no scholarships for fall or spring one-week workshops.

Arrival and Departure

Penland is located in the Blue Ridge Mountains near Spruce Pine, NC, 53 miles northeast of Asheville. The easiest way to get here is by car, but commercial van service is available from the Asheville airport and bus terminal at the beginning and end of each session for a fee. Plan to arrive at Penland before 5:00 PM on Sunday (work-study and studio assistants arrive a day earlier). Eight-week sessions end on Friday at noon. Plan to leave no later than Saturday morning. (Work-study and studio assistants stay one day later). One-week sessions end on Saturday at noon.

Policies

Drugs and Alcohol – Alcohol is not permitted in the studios. The legal drinking age in North Carolina is 21. Alcohol consumption on campus is subject to critically important limitations. The use of illegal drugs while at Penland is strictly prohibited. We cannot tolerate behavior that jeopardizes your safety or the safety of others.

Personal Property – Penland is not responsible for the security of property belonging to students, instructors, or staff. (Lockers are available on campus.)

Pets – Students are not permitted to have pets on campus while at Penland.

Unacceptable Behavior – Penland reserves the right to dismiss any student, without refund, for behavior that is disruptive to the community learning and living environment. Penland may refuse admission to students with a history of unacceptable behavior.

Penland School of Crafts is a nonprofit, tax-exempt institution. The school receives support from individuals, foundations, corporations, and the North Carolina Arts Council, an agency funded by the State of North Carolina and the National Endowment for the Arts, which believes that a great nation deserves great art.
