

Documenting Your Work

Photography Workshop with Annie Donovan

Saturday, November 14, 10:30am-4pm

Learn to photograph your artwork

- Join Annie Donovan (MFA Studio Art, FSU) for this one-day workshop for all skill levels in photography. The emphasis of the workshop is to learn to document and light your artwork professionally, and to learn to archive it digitally for website, exhibition submissions, and for print. Both 2-D and 3-D works will be covered, and artists are encouraged to bring artwork to document.
- Provided supplies: reference sheets, limited cameras and CDs to save images, limited computers with Photoshop, studio strobe lighting system and alternative lighting (clamp lights, etc.)
- Recommended supplies: digital camera, laptop, USB portable drive, up to 3 artworks to document (may not get to all) entry guidelines for digital submissions (if any).

Please register by October 31

Tuition:

$30 members

$40 nonmembers

Minimum enrollment: 6

Maximum enrollment: 16

Registration Information:

- Minimum enrollment is 6 students. If the workshop does not meet the minimum enrollment, you will be fully refunded.
- Full amount is due with registration.
- No refunds or cancellations after October 31.
- Parking surrounds the courthouse square. Although signs do not indicate that Saturdays are exempt from ticketing, we have yet to see them ticket on Saturdays. Alternative parking is available in the City Lot on Washington Street between Duval and Love Street. You may drop off supplies at the front and then park.
- Lunch will be from 12:30-1:00pm. We suggest calling ahead to an area restaurant to pick up, or bring a lunch to be sure to make it back in time. Refrigerator and microwave are available to use.
